Expectations

- Facilitators should be available to arrive on July 18, 2010. The facilitator training will begin the morning of July 19th and run until July 23rd. The facilitators then support the program for the 100 youth participants starting July 24th. The role will last until departure on the morning of August 13th. Unfortunately, we cannot accommodate early arrivals or late departures.
- Facilitators will be responsible for covering their own travel costs, however accomodation, food, and training are all provided at no cost.
- Facilitators will be responsible for making their own travel arrangements, and for ensuring that they communicate their arrival information to Pearson College by June 1st, 2010.
- Facilitators should expect to be full-participants during the entirety of the seminar, and to be present and actively engaged in all activities.
- The PSYL program for the participants will run from July 24 – August 13, 2010.

Application Process

- Current UWC students wishing to apply must be nominated from their UWC Director (or other designated person coordinating applications). Applications must be submitted to their office by March 1st, 2010.
- Past PSYL Participants wishing to apply must submit applications to our office by March 15th, 2010.

To be completed by the student and confirmed by School Official

You may use a separate sheet of paper if needed to complete answers

1) Please provide examples of leadership roles that you've taken in school activities or in your community

2) In which leadership skills are you confident? Which new skills would you like to be introduced to, or develop further?

3) What qualities make a good leader?

4) Are there any specific skills (i.e. canoeing, public speaking) which you could share?

5) Please indicate your reason for attending PSYL. What do you hope to learn from the experience and contribute to it?

6) Please feel free to add any additional comments.

The Pearson Seminar on Youth Leadership is a challenging experience which requires a full commitment from all who attend.

Facilitators should be:

- responsible, with the ability to benefit from new learning experiences
- open in outlook and interested in community, national and international affairs
- willing to assume responsibility in a team-like atmosphere
- interested in acting as a mentor and leader – and interested in further improving and developing leadership skills
- able to demonstrate maturity and good judgment
- prepared to share their experiences with others
- committed to acting in a professional role, and to adhering to principles set forth for staff of PSYL
